RETIREMENT

OSCAR H. GUSTAFSON

Retiring after thirty-two years with the College, Professor Oscar H. Gustafson has served as Unit Coordinator for the Agriculture Department, 1986-present; chairman of the Division of Applied Sciences, Career Programs and Technologies from 1974-1985; and professor of agriculture.

After attending Potomac State College, Professor Gustafson earned a bachelor's degree in agriculture in 1950 and a master's degree in agriculture education in 1953 from West Virginia University. He is especially proud that all members of his family have attended Potomac State College over the years.

Before coming to PSC, Professor Gustafson was a Vo-Ag teacher at Keyser High School, a Vo-Ag teacher and IOOF instructor at Buckhannon High School, and a member of the U.S. Navy's CBs.

Professor Gustafson has been awarded an Honorary State Farmer degree. He is a member of the State Farm Bureau, the Cattleman's Association, the National Vocational Agriculture Teacher's Association; the Lions Club (past president), and the Grace Methodist Church (where he has served on the Board of Trustees and as a Sunday School teacher).

Mr. Gus and wife Jacqueline have four children: Robert Allen, John Philip, Jacqueline Sions, and Michael Lee; and they have seven grandchildren.

25 YEARS OF SERVICE

RICHARD A. DAVIS

Completing twenty-five years of service to the College, Professor Richard A. Davis was born in Fairmont, West Virginia, and received his public school education in Fairmont. He went on to receive his B.M. degree in 1962 and his M.M. degree in 1970 from West Virginia University.

A member of the music faculty since 1963, Professor Davis began his teaching career as a traveling general music teacher for elementary and junior high school in the New Richmond, Ohio, School District during the 1962-1963 school year. He was promoted at Potomac State to Assistant Professor of Music in 1970 and Associate Professor of Music in 1975.

Professor Davis is an active member of Highland Arts Unlimited, the Director of the College-Community Choir, Director of the Chancel Choir of the Grace Methodist Church, and member of the Adult Bell Choir for the Church.

Dick and wife Sharon have two sons: Robbie, age 16, and Morgan, age 11.

WILLIAM H. GALLIER

Professor William H. Gallier has completed twenty-five years of service to the College. He is presently an Associate Professor of History.

Professor Gallier attended Davidson College, North Carolina, then earned an A.B. degree from Columbia College, New York. He was awarded a Master of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina and has studied India at the University of Pennsylvania.

Before coming to PSC, Professor Gallier was employed at Brandon Hall (preparatory) School, Dunwoody, suburban Atlanta, Georgia, for two years.

Professor Gallier was honored with a Fulbright-Hayes study tour grant to India in the summers of 1970 and 1972. He also received a Fulbright summer grant to study India at the University of Wisconsin in 1976.

Professor Gallier is a member of the American Association of University Professors, the Southern Historical Association and the West Virginia Historical Association.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gallier, reside in Charlotte, North Carolina.

BETTY J. HOWARD

Professor Betty J. Howard, completing twenty-five years of service, has served Potomac State well in the Mary F. Shipper Library first as Cataloging Librarian, then as Head Librarian since 1975. She holds the rank of Assistant Professor, and has taught library science, woman's studies, freshman composition and geography during her tenure on campus.

Professor Howard received her bachelor's degree from Morris Harvey College (now the University of Charleston) in 1953; continued with graduate work at WVU in 1955; earned a master's degree from Marshall University in 1959 with additional class work in 1973; and earned an MLS degree from the University of Maryland in 1976.

Before being hired at Potomac State, Professor Howard was a teacher/librarian at Fort Ashby High School and Elk Garden High School; a teacher at Gassaway High School; and an educational assistant at the Trinity United Methodist Church in Piedmont, West Virginia.

The success of our college library being designated as a national World War II library honoring Woodrow Wilson Barr greatly pleased Professor Howard. Additionally, she has been named to Outstanding Young Women in America.

Professor Howard is a member of the American Library Association; the West Virginia Library Association (and chair of the College and University Section); National Council of Geographic Educators; and Trinity United Methodist Church (where she has served as member of the choir, Sunday School teacher, and more).

Betty and husband James William Howard, Jr. reside in Westernport.
